If you think that this is your year and you can prowl your territories in an awe-inspiring stature and tower over the others in Tiger Year 2022, you are likely to be disappointed. On the contrary, the Tiger is in conflict with the Grand Duke (犯太岁) and it implies the likelihood of difficulties, obstacles and calamities. You may try to isolate yourself from others and mind your own business but trouble still manage to sneak in and come knocking on your door. You may invite undesirable gossips or scurrilous attacks for the slightest mistake or the most trivial matter. Being headstrong will do you no good and it would be wise to curb your stubbornness and wilfulness, stay calm and be more tolerant. It is easy to be muddled and lose focus. It is therefore crucial to get your act together and pull yourself together to overcome the challenges with courage, unwavering fortitude and determination.

Career Luck 事业运

It may be easier to travel to space than to see eye to eye with your bosses or coworkers in Tiger Year 2022. Your bosses or coworkers have differing opinions and are unsupportive of your ideas. Backstabbing, gossips and jealousy seem inevitable. Notwithstanding all your heroic maneuvers and all the helpful things that you have done, you are unlikely to be honoured or rewarded. Moreover, the Horse is unfortunately surrounded by unhelpful and revengeful people with ill intent in Tiger Year 2022. The consolation is that the union between the Horse and the Tiger miraculously extends an invisible helping hand, gets you out of the fix and empowers you to overcome your challenges.

Relationship 感情

The union between the Horse and the Tiger symbolises the bond of love, togetherness or concord. People who are deeply in love may consider tying the knot and ringing the wedding bells. For singles, if you desire to establish a romantic relationship, you still have good chances to get hitched. When your Prince Charming or Miss Right appears, pluck up your courage, take the initiative and make the first move.

The Monkey clashes with the Grand Duke (太岁) in Tiger Year 2022. When there is a clash, there are bound to be changes and movement. It is likely to be hectic and chaotic, and the Monkey trudges through the days in a fog of disquiet. The forest is barren, and the ferocious tiger is lurking in the shadows and waiting for the opportunity to pounce on the clueless and oblivious Monkey. Do not dance on the volcano or trouble the quiet snake. Caution is not cowardice and carelessness is not courage. It pays to be more careful, to keep a cool head and consider things more thoroughly before proceeding. You could also expect changes to your job or working environment. It is important to keep your emotions in check and avoid heaping too much stress upon yourself.

Wealth Luck 财运

Against headwinds, the going is likely to be tough for the Monkey in Tiger Year 2022. Watch your expenditure like a hawk. You could at least cut your expenses if you are unable to grow your income. If you need to sign an agreement or contract, please read the fine print, and understand the terms and conditions before putting your signature above the line. The Monkey should also refrain from gambling or making high-risk investments. In order to prevent your hard-earned savings from going down the drain, you may consider purchasing some fixed assets or something valuable at the beginning of the year to fulfill the "monetary loss" prophecy.

Health 健康

The inauspicious Blood Sword Star (血刃) takes a toll on the health, resulting in ailments and injuries. The Monkey should exercise care and not take safety for granted during driving, traveling or operating tools or machinery. The Monkey may also be vulnerable to ailments related to the respiratory system. It is advisable for the Monkey to watch his diet closely and maintain an active and healthy lifestyle.
